Course identification:	Teaching unit: TU3 International Environment Module: Economics Subject: France in globalization, strengths and weaknesses	ECTS credits: 5 credits (together with International Economics)	Semester: spring Teaching hours: 12 Full workload: 36

Objectives of the course:	Giving students an insight into contemporary economics, focusing on contemporary France
Prerequisites:	Basic knowledge of macro-economic concepts An interest for reading the economic press
Course contents:	Definition of basic concepts (GDP, current account, inflation, public debt, monetary systems) The place of the French state in the French economy France within the European Union French trade balance and current account- the place of the French industry
Evaluation :	Group presentation (50%)- individual written exam (50%)
Bibliography :	Articles from Natixis, le Monde, The conversation, etc Material provided on Moodle platform
Remarks :	Reading the articles provided and working independently between sessions is essential to pass