Course identification:	Teaching unit: TU3 International Environment Module: Economics Subject:	ECTS credits: 5 credits (together with International Economics)	Semester: spring Teaching hours: 24 Full workload: 72

Objectives of the course:	Providing students with main issues on contemporary international economics
Prerequisites:	Basic knowledge of economics Interest in reading economic press
Course contents:	- Exchange rates : history of exchange rates regimes, - Globalization through trade and finance - theoretical and empirical approaches, international institutions (IMF, World Bank, WTO) - European monetary union : competition, cooperation and economic policies
Evaluation :	40% oral évaluations (press reviews) and 60% written exam
Bibliography :	TBA
Remarks :	